Volume 1

Number 4 July 1996

From the Chairman

Dear Tsintzinians,

As we come so close to the 1996 National Convention, the tension around the home and office grows. The only unpredictable situation I have is the weather. Every time we drive by the Greek church here in Annapolis, I make a prayer that the good Lord will give us protected weather for the 5 days.

board meeting last meeting last month to receive final instructions as to having everything on the clubhouse grounds prepared. With the many enhancements and added services, Bob's hands will definitely be overloaded. The stage has been extended and although it will remain in the same area due to cost cuts, it will still give the stage 12 more square feet of space not only for the band but also society will furnish the courts but the basketballs are to be furnished by the players.

The new registration forms are presently in progress and will make the registration process much smoother and efficient. It is important, that we ask each member to completely fill out the registration form. This helps us at the Tsintzinian Chronicle and Peter Dickson's team that are writing the research for archeological and genealogical purposes, and helping us with the address changes.

Bob Olsen is presently rolling a flat area on the grass at the edge of the baseball field to layout out the two official size Bocci courts, which will be competition size for the National

The menus are now finalized and everything is starting to come together. Alex Gregory, Jr. from Toftrees is managing the entire food preparation which will be prepared in the professional kitchens at Toftrees and then brought up in special refrigerated trucks to the clubhouse. The main dishes will be prepared at the clubhouse at the last minute by Toftrees, Chief Executive Chef, Richard Schmidt.

Bob Olsen met with me at the

the children's talent night performance.

The board voted to construct an official half court basketball court behind the clubhouse. As may of us noticed last year, the only primary game for the kids was baseball. There will be lights on the court so that in the evenings the kids can take their basketball out back under the lights and enjoy an evening game. We encourage all the young basketball players to bring their own basketball. The Convention.

Areas for parking will be well marked and we will appreciate if everyone including Tsintzinians follow the rules in the new parking area. There should be more than enough established parking throughout the assigned parking areas at the clubhouse grounds. For handicapped persons, their vehicles will be temporarily authorized access to come to the front door via the back gate. Once the handicapped people are discharged from their vehicle, the vehicle is to be removed and place back into the assigned parking lots.

No Tsintzinian parking as you want and where you want will be allowed this year..

In the following pages your will see the enormous amount of activities that will be created this year. We are looking forward to this year's convention and there has been many positive responses from our members about attending this year's convention. One of the largest migraines that we have had so far has been the facilities for housing. Donna McKay has been eagerly addressing this situation and we have expanded out to the Holiday Inn in Warren, PA. Once again, as of this date if you have not made reservations, it will be extremely difficult in trying to make housing accommodations. Please contact us here at the Chronicle via fax if you have any difficulty in obtaining reservations.

For the parents of children, we have exciting news for the toddlers and he parents, Mr. Gary Stoffer director of marketing and the president of the largest company in the manufacturing of commercial playground, has donated playground equipment to the our historical society. This equipment should be arriving the later part of June.

Relm communications has donated handheld radio units so that officials throughout the convention will have direct communications with the clubhouse. Hopefully there will be no more need for the running around searching for people.

Remember that as you arrive at the clubhouse, either on Thursday or Friday, that if you are looking for others, or you want others to locate you there will be a large corkboard located on the porch or immediately inside the club facilities. There will be index cards available so that you can leave notes for your family as to your whereabouts.

We are asking our members to support the Kentrikon for the Saturday and Sunday morning breakfast and afternoons for lunches for the members, guests and children. We are trying to bring you the best and mostcreative memu to minimize the effort of driving off the clubhouse grounds to facilitate lunches for the kids. Once again we are inviting everyone for breakfast and lunch at the new Kentrikon located in the Louis Poulos Hall.

All the Board of Directors, and my family are looking forward to an exciting time this year and hopefully everyone will be able to have a lovely time, a great family reunion, at the 1996 National Tsintzinian Convention.

From the President

Dear Members:

It's a fact that 100 years ago the Dow Jones was founded and as of today only one company, General Electric, is still on the list. Our great country has been through three major wars on foreign soil. We have been hit by two great depressions and many other confrontations too numerous to mention. Yet our nation is, with all the above, as strong as ever.

Our Tzintsinian group mirrors our nation over this past century. We too have survived all the above. We have been able to keep our property and improve the physical well-being of the building and grounds. Our financial sheet shows increasing assets and reduced liabilities. We have hard working, dedicated people, and membership is on the upswing.

So what's my point? Well, the U.S. of A, is going to be around for a long time. Come to Jamestown this year, dance till you drop, and let the good times roll!!!

See ya -

Richard Schmitt, CWC

Executive chef, TOFTREES Resort

Mr. Richard Schmitt became executive chef at Toftrees Resort after serving five years as executive sous chef where he exhibited his experience and talent in preparing the variety and depth of menus at both Le Papillon and the Eagle Bar and Grill. Besides his duties as chef at Toftrees, Mr. Schmitt plans menus for the Intracoastal Waterway Charters of the Golden Greek II, a luxury yacht.

In 1992 Mr. Schmitt was Chef of the Year of the American Culinary Federation (ACF) Nittany Valley Chefs Association. He served his culinary apprenticeship at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel and Towers from 1983-1987 prior to becoming the executive sous chef at Toftrees Resort.

Mr. Schmitt joined the ACF in 1983, served two terms as chapter secretary, and recently served two terms as president of his chapter. He is a charter member of both the Conemaugh and Nittany Valley Chapters of the ACF.

He was honored to be selected chef for the Charity Dinner for Pastors and Bishops of Indiana County, Pa. and chef de cuisine of the Annual Gold Plate Dinner held at Toftrees Resort every year.

Mr. Schmitt shares his knowledge of different cuisines from cultures around the world by working with the local community and schools.

A Family that Bears the Name of our Ancestral Village

By Peter W. Dickson

Among all the discoveries made in uncovering the amazing history of the Tsintzinian pioneers in America, none may equal the one made in 1992 which is so fantastical as to be almost beyond belief. The following account explains the existence of a family in Texas which actually carries as a family name the name of our nine hundred year old village.

As we all know, many families have existed in Tsintzina since it emerged sometime before the twelfth century. Some families have lived there almost from the beginning and many others settled in Tsintzina after 1500 after coming from some other part of Greece or the Greek islands. It is easy to identify the later arrivals because of the character the names clearly indicates they came from Crete, Messinia, the Mani or other parts of the Peloponnesos.

However, no one has ever heard of anyone taking as a family name, the name of Tsintzina itself. This would not have been unusual because of this phenomenon of a place or geographical name becoming a family name is well known among all cultures. Among Greeks, we have Smyrniotis for Smyrna, Rumeliotis for Rumely, and of course Tsakonas for Tsakonia.

The detective story begins at the 1990 Tsintzinian Convention when I learned that the February issue of Architectural Digest stated that a prosperous and beautiful section of Alexandria was called "Zinzinia" after a wealthy Greek family of this name.

I had come across this Zizinia family in 1985 when I read a famous book about the aristocratic Greco-Genoese families of the Aegean island of Chios written by Philip Argenti. The book in French and published by Oxford University Press in 1955 makes clear that this family was one of thirty that had their own coat of arms and a long history on the island going back several centuries. The family tree of the Zizinia family going back to the 18th century was in volume two of Argenti's book which in English is known as

The History Corner

The Golden Book (Libro d'Oro) of the Noble Families of Chios. Some Zizinians went from Chios to Egypt in the 1800s.

The connection between this Zizinia family and Tsintzina became more clear when during a visit to the Library of Congress on May 27, 1992 to do research on Christopher Columbus and his connection to Chios, I took another look at the section of Argenti's book on the Zizinia family. Once the page showing the family coat of arms, I noticed on the left was the Italian version of the Name (Zizinia). On the right, However, was the original family name in the Greek language which I stupidly and amazingly overlooked ten years ago. The original Greek name was "Tsitsinias" which is the ancient and correct spelling of our village's name. Later, a second "n" was added and the second "s" became a "z" to produce Tsintzina.

The Zizinia family name reflects the obvious linguistic need of the Italians, in this case the Genoese who ruled Chios from 1346-1566 to substitute the "z" for "ts". This is how "Tsintsinia" becomes "Zizinia."

Furthermore, Argenti's discussion of the family history supports this interpretation because he stated that the origin of this family is a mystery. He speculated that the Zizinians came from Peloponnesos or some other Greek island. He notes that the name never appears in Genoese documents, the family came to Chios relatively later after 1600, and the name is obviously not of Hellenic origin. Argenti's last point is correct. Tsitsina or today

Tsintzina is a Slavic word or name for a thorny bush found in our ancestral mountain village. Many other villages in Greece have names of Slavic origin.

In any case, the family with this name first appears in Chios in the 1600s and the first identifiable person is a Stephanos Zizinia born in Chios in 1730. The family after the massacre of 1823 moved to Constantinople, Egypt, and Marseilles. One small branch settled in the New York area in the late 1800s and eventually moved to Texas. This is the only branch in which the Zizinia family name survives. A couple of years ago, two women from this family visited Tzintzina.

The historical connection between the village and this family is unmistakable. There is only one Tsintzina in the entire world and the Zizinia (Tsitsinia) family arrived in Chios more than 300 years ago from some other part of Greece. This long lost connection has to be the most amazing, nearly unbelievable story in the long saga of the Tsintzinians. Once has to wonder whether the Tsintzinians, many of whom became extremely wealthy in Alexandria at the turn of the century, ever bothered of ask about the origins of this other prominent Greek family living in the same city.

One has to marvel at the fact that this family name would only arrive in America (Texas) and also in the same country where the Tsintzinians stand forth as not only the oldest group of people originally from one town or place outside America still maintaining their social bond in this country over 120 years.

Presbytera Joanne (Costianes) Ferencz

Presbytera Joanne (Costianes) Ferencz will be presenting her iconography at this year's Tsintzinian Convention. Joanne studied under Iconographer Phil Zimmerman (who studied under Bishop Job Osacky) at the St. John Damascene Sacred Art Academy in Ligonier, Pennsylvania. She has been writing icons for over two years.

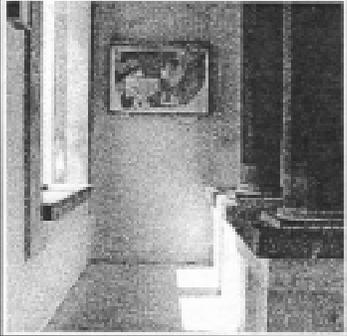

Joanne is the daughter of George and Vaia Costianes, the mother of Stacey and Duane George Ulery and the wife of Father Nicholas Ferencz. She has a BSN in Nursing and, besides writing icons on commission, she works full time as the Nurse Manager of a prominent OB/GYN office in the Ligonier area.

Voice Mail and Message Service

Oops we goofed again. In the last issue of the Chronicle, we mentioned for the first time in history there was an official telephone voice answering system in the Tsintzinian clubhouse. The only problem is, we forgot to tell you the number. The official number is 716-661-6262.

We apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused and we hope that you will use this service not only prior to the convention but as you arrive in town. We will be updating all the activities on a daily basis for the Thursday, Friday and Saturday night events including the Sunday breakfast departure. For any comments or information, you can always call the number and press either 2 or 3 if you want to reach Bob Olsen at the clubhouse or if you want to leave a message in reference to the Tsintzina Society, please feel free to do so.

This system will be reviewed for one year and if it has enough activity, we will maintain it. If not, we will shut the system down by the end of this year.

Once you hear the messages, not only is the telephone service good for obtaining information in reference to our national convention but it is also good for many people within the Jamestown, Celeron area that want to rent our facility. They will have access to information in reference to the clubhouse. The clubhouse for the first time in history will be advertised in the yellow pages next year for leasing the facility for major banquets.

A First in Postal Tsintzinian History

Flash !! For the first time ever recorded Mr. Nick G. Economy from Roanoke, Virginia has been the first Tsintzinian to officially file for a postal change of address card. The primary reason Nick and his family filed was that they didn't want to miss any of the Tsintzinian Chronicle articles.

From the Editor

Thank you Nick, we appreciate receiving your address change so we can enter it into the computer and wish that many others would do the same. By filing a change of address card it saves the society much money, effort and time waiting for the postal return request to arrive and then out of courtesy, resend a new issue of the Chronicle to the member.

Once again want to thank you and hope that others will follow your example.

Please accept my apology. In the past issue of the Chronicle, I had stated the Jim Poulos Hall. The correction is that the hall is officially the Louie Poulos Hall. My apologies to the families.

Letters to the Editor

It has been astonishing in the tremendous amount of responses we have received the past 6 months in publishing the Tsintzinian Chronicle. We have had over 60-75 responses by either fax, letters or telephone calls. Many members have asked me to publish these letters in the Tsintzinian Chronicle. I hopefully will be able to get caught up after the convention.

Primarily the reason that I haven't published the response letters is due to the weight of the paper it takes to ship the Tsintzinian Chronicle. We are only able to mail 5 (double sided) pages to keep the cost at $.32 a copy. If I were to composite all the letters and respond to them it would take up 3 1/2 extra pages.

I will try periodically to incorporate responses to the Editor and answer them to the best of my ability. Once again, thank you for your tremendous response in supporting the Tsintzina Society and the Tsintzinian Chronicle.

From Connie Dusckas - Clearwater, Florida

A FYI - In one article it was mentioned that one of the first conventions was held at Waldameer Park in Erie, Pennsylvania. Connie was born and raised there. The park is still in operation. Apparently a past article in the paper by Peter Dickson, stated that the park was now closed.

Connie, thank you so much for the information, we sure do appreciate it. Also our sincere thoughts and sympathy to your sister-in-law Angeline Dusckas who has recently passed away. We will dearly miss this great lady who had lots of fun and she will be missed by our brothers and sisters. Connie's father and Angeline were first cousins.

From Anne Chacona Batchelor - Erie, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Lambros and Dr. Gregory, I just want to congratulate you for a wonderful Tsintzinian Chronicle! It was very enjoyable to read about our heritage in such informative and interesting articles. It has ignited my sons' interest in their Greek roots so much, that we hope to attend this year's convention.

Again, congratulations for daring to "enhance" and keep alive the Greek culture and our roots to Tsintzinia. I hope to meet you in Celeron.

Sincerely,

Anne (Tammy) Chacona Batchelor.

P.S. As a native of Erie, I must point out one small correction to Mr. Dickson's article. Waldameer Park is indeed flourishing and attracts thousands of guests weekly during the summer months.

From Yianoula Huey - Winter Park, Florida

To the Editor of the Tsintzinian Chronicle or Dr. Gregory,

I have not been to your convention and my father's last name was Voulomanos, Nicholas the first name. I am interested in going to Greece, are there any trips sponsored by the Tsintzinian group? Since I do not speak the language and there are no trips to the Sparta area so one could visit my father's home area of Goritsa and Tsintzinian towns. Please advise. Thank you. I really enjoyed reading the Chronicle. Do I contact USAir directly for the discount or would the travel agency be able to book it at the discount? Where do I fly into for the shortest driving distance to the Convention? I presume the town the convention is held in is Celeron. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Yianoula Huey

Dear Yianoula,

First of all, USAir has a small flight service that flies from Erie, PA directly into Jamestown. The distance from the airport to the convention is short and a shuttle should take you directly to the clubhouse. Just remember, presently all the hotels on our list are fully booked. Donna McKay is presently searching for hotels and motels within a 10 to 12 mile distance so we can completely house our entire convention. In mentioning your father's past roots, I am hopefully wishing that by this time next year I will have in place major discounts for our Tsintzinian members to fly to Greece and have a tour to Sparta which would include Tsintzina, Zoupena and Goritsa. At the present time, I have made contact with an outstanding travel service located in Baltimore, Maryland that can give us round trip tickets into Greece for about $490.00 to $560.00 round trip in the August to September time frame. I need now to only review travel services while in Greece this summer, that fully have a command of the English language. The trips will be primarily for archeological and genealogical research and for photography. I will be bringing this up under New Business at the 1996 National Convention in July.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the convention and best of health and spirits and we appreciate your support.

ate your support.

George J. Chelekis, 84

Past Tsintzina Society President and Owner of Brass Rail Restaurant

George J. Chelekis, 84, of Boardman, Ohio died Tuesday, June 26, 1996. Mr. Chelekis was born September 11, 1911 in Youngstown, a son of James and Anna Conostas Chelekis. He was owner operator of the Brass Rail Restaurant in Youngstown from 1931 to 1968. He was a member of St. John Greek Orthodox Church and served as a board member. George was active among many organizations in Youngstown. He was a four time president of the Kiwanis, a 32nd degree Mason of the Scottish Rite, and a veteran of World War II.

George served as a past president of the Tsintzina Society in Celeron, New York. His commitment and devotion to the Society helped secure the future of the clubhouse and the Tsintzina Society in general. His presence, spirit, and humor at the registration table will be missed at this year's convention.

He leaves a brother Stephen, and six sisters, Mrs. Irene Parthemos, Mrs. Cleo Gorant, Mrs. Loy Georgetson, Mrs. Bess Canelos, Mrs. Diane Andrews, and Mrs. Eva Macheras.

Your spirit, George, will be missed.
